2. Definitions

Child

A child, as defined in the Children's Acts, 1989 and 2004, is anyone, who has not yet reached their 18th birthday. 'Children' therefore means 'children and young people' throughout.

Vulnerable Adult

A vulnerable adult is defined as a person aged 18 and over who is or who 'may be in need of community care services by reason of mental or other disability, age or illness; and who is or may be unable to take care of themselves, or unable to protect themselves against significant harm or exploitation'. (Definition taken from the Department of Health)

Designated Safeguarding Officer (DSO)

The Designated Safeguarding Officer takes lead responsibility for safeguarding and child protection (including online safety) for Somerset House Trust. The Designated Safeguarding Officer contact list for Somerset House Trust can be found in Appendix 1.

3. Types and Signs of Abuse in Children and Vulnerable Adults

Is it important to be aware that abuse can take place under many different forms, therefore there are a number of different indicators to look out for. There are four main types of abuse:

- Physical abuse
 - The intentional causing of physical harm to a person. It could involve hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning, scalding, drowning, suffocating or fabricated and induced illness. It can happen at any time of life.
 - Some possible signs include frequent or unexplained injuries, injuries inconsistent with the person's lifestyle and subdued or changed behaviour.
- Emotional abuse
 - Emotional abuse can be defined as any act that has a negative impact on the emotional wellbeing of a person. It can include confinement, isolation, verbal assault, humiliation, intimidation or any other treatment which may diminish an individual's sense of identity, dignity and self-worth. In a child Emotional abuse causes severe and persistent adverse effects on the child's emotional development.
 - Some possible signs include low self-esteem, change in appetite and uncooperative or aggressive behaviour.
- Sexual abuse
 - Sexual abuse involving a child is forcing them to take part in sexual activities, regardless of whether or not the child is aware of what is happening. The perpetrators can be adult men and women and other children.
 - Sexual abuse involving an adult is when a person is forced or persuaded to take part in contact or non-contact sexual activities, whether they understand what is happening or not.
 - Some possible signs include bruising, unusual difficulty in sitting or walking and poor concentration.
- Neglect

- Neglect for a child is the persistent failure to meet a child's basic physical or psychological needs. It is likely to result in the serious impairment of the child's health or development.
- Neglect for an adult is defined as the persistent failure to meet a person's basic physical or psychological needs
- Possible signs include poor physical condition, malnutrition, untreated injuries and uncharacteristic failure to engage in social interaction.

4. Procedures for protecting Children and Vulnerable Adults

- Any Trust activity involving children and/or vulnerable adults includes safeguarding in its risk assessment as standard. All Somerset House Risk Assessments have Safeguarding risk measures and controls built into them
- A list of Designated Safeguarding Officers contact details is kept up to date and easily accessible to all on this policy, saved in People HR, TEAMS and our website.
- Designated Safeguarding Officers are trained to Level 3 in Safeguarding, with refreshment training every 3 years.
- All staff are asked to read and digitally sign this policy to confirm they understand their responsibility to be alert to the signs of abuse, or inappropriate behaviour towards a child or vulnerable adult and are required to refer any concerns to the Designated Safeguarding Officer. They should be aware however that they are not trained to respond with situations of abuse or decide whether abuse has occurred, they are responsible to report only.
- Our Safeguarding policy is accessible on our website, in order for the public to understand the responsibility placed upon Somerset House Trust for child protection and adults at risk.
- We will link with relevant agencies and co-operate as required with their enquiries regarding child protection and adults at risk, including attendance at case conferences.
- Any safeguarding concerns will be recorded in writing using Disclosure or Incident Report (Appendix 5). These will be kept confidentially and stored securely for 10 years or until the person in question is aged 65, whichever is longer, or if relating to a child until they are 25.
- If a complaint is made against a member of staff, we will investigate the complaint and take appropriate action, which could include suspension and disciplinary proceedings. Staff should refer to our internal Speak Up policy.
- Please note the Trust accepts independent visitors aged 14 and over.

5. Reporting Procedures

There are some basic principles in reacting to suspicions, allegations, and/or disclosures which relate to both children and vulnerable adults:

Remember:

- Staff made aware of suspicions, allegations or actual abuse are responsible for taking the appropriate action according to the below procedure.
- The welfare of a child or vulnerable adult must be paramount, and you therefore have a duty to report suspicions, allegations or actual incidents to the below procedure.

Report:

- Report directly to a Designated Safeguarding Officer (DSO) or
- If you are a member of the casual staff team (particularly working out of hours) to the Duty Manager.
- In the absence of a Designated Safeguarding Officer or Duty Manager please contact Security on 0207 420 9439 or ext. 2222.

- Information should also be reported if you have concerns that a child or vulnerable adult may be suffering harm or at risk of abuse, even if you are unsure about your suspicions.
- You are obliged to disclose even if the child or vulnerable adult requests confidentially but reassure them that only those who need to know will be made aware.
- It is not for staff to decide whether a suspicion or allegation is true. All suspicions or allegations must be taken seriously and dealt with according to this procedure.

What to do when reporting an incident:

- Use the Disclosure or Incident Report (Appendix 5) to support you to capture all the information needed.
- Staff should never try to deal with a suspicion, allegation or actual incident of abuse by themselves, however it is your responsibility to make sure that the incident is acknowledged by the Designated Safeguarding Officer/Duty Manager.
- The incident should be disclosed immediately to a Designated Safeguarding Officer/Duty Manager. If you do not receive an immediate response via phone and email please try another Designated Safeguarding Officer on the list.
- Once the incident has been acknowledged by the Designated Safeguarding Officer/Duty Manager, they are then responsible for dealing with allegations or suspicions of abuse by consulting with the relevant statutory agencies.
- If the incident has not been received by the Lead or Deputy Designated Safeguarding Officer, they must be updated and brought up to speed at the earliest moment
- The Lead or Deputy Designated Safeguarding Officer will record the report in the Safeguarding log that is security protected using the information provided on the Disclosure Reporting form.
- Care will be taken to ensure that confidentiality for those involved in an incident and staff is maintained and that information is handled and disseminated on a need-to-know basis only, in line with the prevailing data protection regulation. Individuals must be confident that information held about them by Somerset House will only be disclosed to others either with their consent or when there is a legal duty to do so, or there is serious concern for wellbeing.
- All records will be kept confidentially and securely for 10 years or until the person in question is aged 65, whichever is longer, or if relating to a child until they are 25. Records will be accessible only to HR, Lead Designated Safeguarding Officer and Deputy Designated Safeguarding Officer.

9. Reporting suspected, alleged, or actual incidents of abuse- Structure for Vulnerable Adults – Internal

If you have a concern about a staff member in regards to safeguarding please follow the below structure

10. Response structure for Designated Safeguarding Officer

11. Statutory Child and Vulnerable Adults Protection Procedures

What happens next is the responsibility of the relevant statutory agency, usually Social Services. If there is enough information the suspicion, allegation or actual incident may be dealt with quickly with few complications, or it may lead to thorough checks with several other organisations and possibly a child protection or adult at risk conference.

Conferences involve the parents/carers and sometimes the child or vulnerable adult as well. Decisions about what will happen next are made at the conference.

If a child protection or adult at risk conference is needed the person who has made the initial report would only be contacted if further information is required. It is not usual practice for the relevant statutory agency to feedback developments.

If you want to know more about the steps taken by the relevant agency after a report is submitted please read Working Together 2018 for child protection cases and Safeguarding Adults National Framework for vulnerable adult cases.

12. Staff Recruitment, Training and Vetting

All staff must:

- Undertake any training (including induction training) relating to safeguarding which Somerset House requires you to undertake in accordance with and as appropriate to your role and responsibilities.
- Read and digitally sign the Safeguarding Policy (this document) to confirm your understanding and commitment to this policy. If you have any questions speak to the Lead or Deputy Designated Safeguarding Officer.

- Partake in a background, or DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service) check, as required to the level relevant to your role – dependent on amount of work in contact with children and vulnerable adults. Costs of this process will be covered by the Somerset House. If a member of staff declines to obtain a DBS check where required for a role, they will not be able to participate in work that may put them into contact with children or vulnerable adults. Where crucial to the role, this may result in an offer of employment being withdrawn.
- In carrying out responsibilities under this policy individuals may also need to consider a range of other policies and documents that Somerset House has in place (see section 13).
- Support and training will be provided to ensure that this policy is implemented effectively. A breach of policy may result in disciplinary or other further action – up to and including referral to the relevant authorities for criminal investigation.

13. Staff Guidelines:

Those staff working directly with children and/or vulnerable adults should observe the following guidelines:

- For all activities involving children and/or vulnerable adults at least one member of staff should lead on child and/or vulnerable adults protection and safeguarding. This includes ensuring awareness of this policy and its guidelines amongst other staff, contractors, freelancers, external facilitators accompanying education/further education staff, parents, carers and children.
- Where staff are likely to engage with a child on a one-to-one basis it is imperative they are trained to Level 3 in Safeguarding Everyone.
- In line with our Safer Recruitment commitment under our Recruitment policy, all employees working for the Trust are subject to pre-employment checks and all staff who are working with children and/or vulnerable adults must have the appropriate DBS checks in place.
- Risk assessments must be undertaken by each department, including safeguarding risks. Any concerns about an event's safeguarding must be raised with a Deputy Designated Safeguarding Officer immediately.
- Where an activity or event involves an external partnership but takes place onsite or is Trust led, all parties involved need to observe the policy guidelines.
- The policy applies to all Trust-led activities whether they take place on-site, off-site, online or through social media.
- Any queries or concerns about the guidelines whilst planning an activity involving children and/ or vulnerable adults should be brought to the attention of a Deputy Designated Safeguarding Officer immediately.

Contact for Designated Safeguarding Officers and role description

Where urgent please contact Security on 0207 420 9439.

Role of the Designated Safeguarding Officer

Designated Safeguarding Officers are the first point of contact for all staff and volunteers to go to for advice if they are concerned about a child or adult at risk of abuse.

It is not the responsibility of the Designated Safeguarding Officer to decide whether a child or adult at risk has been abused or not- that is the responsibility of investigative statutory agencies such as the Local Safeguarding Board, Safeguarding Adults Team or the police. However, it is everybody's role to make sure we are acting upon anything that is cause for concern, as explained in our Safeguarding Policy.

Responsibilities as a Designated Safeguarding Officer are:

1. Promoting a safe environment for all at Somerset House, especially taking into consideration children and vulnerable adults at risk.
2. Being the first point of contact for anyone with concerns around safeguarding.
3. Ensuring all safeguarding concerns are logged and stored securely
4. Reporting all cases of suspected abuse through the applied reporting structure to the relevant authority – more detail on this can be found in the Safeguarding Policy
5. Acting as a source of support, advice and expertise to staff on matters of safeguarding.
6. Being trained to Level 3 in Safeguarding and seeking to maintain and enhance your knowledge where possible, sharing resources and information with other Designated Safeguarding Officers.
7. Participating in the review of Somerset House's Safeguarding Policy every two years, ensuring it is kept up to date with current legislation and best practise.
8. Ensuring that Somerset House is complying with safer recruitment procedures (noted in our Recruitment Policy) for new staff members, alongside the HR team.
9. Knowing the contact details for relevant statutory agencies to be contacted in the case of a safeguarding incident (listed in the Safeguarding Policy).
10. Alongside the senior management committee and Board of Trustees, ensuring that the organisation's safeguarding policy and related policies and procedures are communicated, followed and regularly updated.
11. Meeting quarterly with fellow Designated Safeguarding Officers to share learnings, reflect on our procedures, forward plan, and ensure clear accountability for those with safeguarding responsibilities.

Appendix 2

Safeguarding Procedure and Guidance for delivering online activity at Somerset House

This procedure refers to the following activity:

- Non-interactive livestreaming, such as live streaming video or webinars where participant video/audio is not enabled.
- Interactive livestreaming where video/audio participation is enabled, such as small group work sessions, meetings or workshops.
- Pre-recorded information shared via video.

Staff responsibilities

Prior to running a session, the lead member of staff should:

1. Familiarise themselves with the Somerset House Safeguarding Policy and procedures.
2. Ensure they have the contact details of the Designated Safeguarding Officers.
3. Ensure they are using an institutional account (not a personal account).
4. Ensure that all staff supervising the activity are familiar with the platform and understand how participants will be using it, including privacy settings and how to report offensive or abusive content.
5. Ensure participants or speakers are advised in advance if a session will be recorded.
6. Plan the structure and content of the activity carefully to ensure that discussions remain on topic and that content is appropriate for participants who are under 18.
7. Ensure participants do not respond to contact requests from people they do not know and that they understand who they should contact if they hear anything upsetting or inappropriate.
8. Ensure that participants know they can contact you via email (if a participant wants to disclose something about the home environment, they may not have the privacy to do this via a call).

During a live session, the lead member of staff should:

- At the start of the session, remind participants about general expectations of behaviour in addition to reminding them of the ground rules. This includes:
 - Not sharing any personal details, such as birthdays, home addresses, bank details, passwords, login information, (even if inadvertently) and understanding that this will need to be reported to the IT Helpdesk if a breach does occur (email - it.helpdesk@somersethouse.org.uk)
 - Encourage participants to have their cameras on at appropriate points during the session (with the background blurred or using a background template).
 - Remind participants not to take photographs of the screens or share any images of the online session without prior consent from the lead facilitator/staff member.

- Challenging behaviour or inappropriate comments should be dealt with immediately by contacting the lead facilitator/staff member who may remove the perpetrator from the call.
- If the virtual platform being used is hacked/bombed by an external person, the member of staff is responsible for ending the session immediately and rescheduling the meeting.
- Staff should avoid being in a private video call on their own with a young person unless they have DBS clearance. If this happens by accident (someone else loses signal etc.) they should immediately come out of the breakout room/chat and end the session, explaining to the participant why you need to do this.

General Staff and Participant expectations of behaviours during a session

- When using cameras, the background should be blurred or a template should be used. Be mindful of your surroundings and use an appropriate room for video calling. Preferably this would be a communal living space or a designated workspace and not a bedroom. Video calls should not be carried out from a bedroom unless the background is concealed.
- When on a video call you must wear suitable clothing, as should anyone else in the household whilst the call is taking place.
- Language must always be professional and appropriate, including other members of your household that may pass in the background.
- If a video call is to be recorded, all participants must be notified at the start of the session.
- Photographs or screenshots of a video call must only be taken with verbal consent.
- If screens are shared at any point, the individual must ensure that all extraneous tabs or browsers have been shut down.
